WILLIAM THE CONQUEROR: THE MAKING OF A KING

GUILLAUME LE CONQUÉRANT

3X45'

PRESALES Q2 2027

Created to mark the millennium of William the Conqueror's birth, this docu-drama explores the extraordinary rise of the Duke of Normandy to King of England, through a unique blend of archaeology, archival research, and historically grounded AI reconstructions.

A fictional storyline follows three 19th-century English and French historians as they investigate William's life and legacy, leading viewers back into the dramatic events of the 11th century.

ANTARCTICA: HEROES OF THE FROZEN SOUTH

ANTARCTICA, LE TEMPS DES HÉROS

5X40' & 2X45'

PRESALES Q4 2027

Between 1895 to 1915, five men embarked on the most dangerous race in history: to conquer Antarctica and reach the South Pole. Bound by shared ambition yet torn apart by rivalry, these explorers experienced an extraordinary saga of friendship, discovery, and tragedy. For the first time, their intertwined destinies are brought together in a gripping narrative that blends human adventure, scientific discovery, and geopolitical stakes.

Drawing on exceptional archival material, striking animations, contemporary footage, and expert testimony, this series unveils a heroic story unlike any other.

Commissioners: ARTE France, RTBF

SILENT WARRIORS

SILENT WARRIORS

2X45'

PRESALES Q12027

Deep beneath the ocean's surface lies one of the most dramatic chapters of the Second World War.

Embark on two of the greatest missions ever carried out by German U-boats. Each episode brings viewers inside a submarine, experiencing the mission from within and sharing the suspense, uncertainty, and danger of life in the silent world beneath the waves. Combining action, tension, and spectacular CGI reconstructions, the series delivers a unique human experience at the heart of under water warfare.

ZOOS: THE UNTOLD HISTORY

ZOOS : LA VÉRITABLE HISTOIRE

52' & 90'

PRESALES DELIVERY Q1 2027

An extraordinary journey into the origins and evolution of zoos, revealing what they tell us about the complex relationship between humans and animals. Spanning from the 16th century to today, the film follows six animal destinies through ca3D animation. Blending rare archives with a cinematic aesthetic, it explores how captivity has shaped our imagination and challenges us to rethink our relationship with the natural world.

Director: Bruno Victor-Pujebet

FIRST DOCTORS

PREMIERS SOINS

52' & 90'

PRESALES DELIVERY Q3 2027

From Hungary to Spain, from Egypt to Morocco, an international archaeological investigation, combining rare artifacts, ancient texts, and cutting-edge research, traces the origins of medicine—from prehistoric care for the injured to the remedies, surgical techniques, and knowledge of ancient practitioners—revealing how healing began as an act of solidarity and evolved into a quest for knowledge.

FIRE FROM THE SKIES: BRITAIN'S BOMBING WAR

LE ROYAUME-UNI DANS LA SECONDE
GUERRE MONDIALE

2X45'

NEW

Often reduced to Churchill, the Blitz, and D-Day, Britain's WWII story hides a darker reality. This two-part documentary reveals how a nation fighting for democracy came to embrace the mass bombing of civilians. From 1940 to 1945, Britain shifted from victim to aggressor. Through the voices of strategists, airmen, and civilians, both British and German, this film explores a distant, dehumanized war where moral certainty gave way to ruthless tactics. Rare archives and firsthand accounts expose a grey zone of history and raise a haunting question: how does a democracy justify systematic violence?

Director: Gil Rabier
Production: GoGoGo Films
Commissioner: ARTE France

7 WONDERS: LEGENDARY MONUMENTS

7 MERVEILLES DU MONDE ANTIQUE

7X52'

NEW SEASON

The Seven Wonders of the Ancient World are still enrobed in mystery surrounding their construction techniques, their functions, and even their true architecture. This series retraces the footsteps of the explorers and archaeologists who discovered these monumental sites. With the help of archaeologists and architects, we travel through Egypt, Turkey, Iraq, and the cities of Greece.

MIDDLE AGES ON LSD

LE PIED COUPÉ DE JÉRÔME BOSCH - UN MOYEN-ÂGE SOUS LSD

52' & 90'

NEW

From the early Middle Ages to the 19th century, a mysterious pandemic, more deadly than the Black Death, ravaged Europe. Known as "Saint Anthony's fire," it was caused by the same fungus behind LSD, triggering terrifying and ecstatic hallucinations subsequently reflected in art and legend.

For the first time, scientists and historians join forces to unravel this story, beginning with a striking clue: a severed foot at the center of a triptych by Hieronymus Bosch.

Director: Pascal Goblot
Production: Zadig Production, Escalenta
Commissioner: ARTE France

VEGETARIANS, THE GREAT ODYSSEY

*L'ADIEU À LA VIANDE : LA GRANDE
HISTOIRE DES VÉGÉTARIENS*

52' & 90'

Vegetarianism is often perceived as a contemporary phenomenon. However, it has a long and well-known history. From Indian Jains to hippies, from Roman philosophers to the first vegetarian society founded in London in 1847, this film offers an odyssey across time and cultures. It is embodied by remarkable figures who, throughout history, used their diet to question humanity's relationship with the living world.

THE DEADLIEST WITCH HUNT

LE PROCÈS DES SORCIÈRES DU LABOURD

52' & 90'

The witch trial that occurred in 1609 in the French Basque Country was the last official hunt in Europe, but also the deadliest. Based on first-hand testimony of the witch hunter Pierre de Lancre, the film deconstructs the mechanisms of this mass murder to reveal the true cultural and religious conflicts that fueled the hysteria.

Director: Marie Thiry
Production: Bellota Films, Lamia Producciones

EMPIRE OF SHADOWS: THE AL CAPONE STORY

AL CAPONE : LA CHUTE DE SCARFACE

2X45'

1925, Chicago. Al Capone builds the first large-scale crime empire, blending violence, corruption, and corporate strategy. A ruthless gangster and a media icon, a family man and a visionary criminal, he embodies the paradoxes of Prohibition-era America. Through his rise and fall, this docu-drama - intertwined with interviews and archival footage - delves into the social roots of the mafia.

Director: Caroline Halazy
Production: Brainworks
Commissioner: France Télévisions

THE EXPORTED: THE DARK TRADE OF THE COLD WAR

LA VENTE SECRÈTE DES JUIFS DE ROUMANIE

60'

For 30 years, from 1959 to 1989, a vast trade in human beings took place in Romania. Hundreds of thousands of Jews were exchanged for pigs, cattle, and sheep, before being sold to Europe and Israel. The film reveals a hidden chapter of twentieth-century history, exposing one of the best-kept secrets of the Communist world. Through testimonies and historians' contributions, it traces the origins and mechanisms of this secret bargain, shedding new light on the story behind the migration of countless families across Europe, the USA and Israel.

Director: Pierre Goetschel
Production: Compagnie des Phares et Balises

AMERICA FIRST: THE NAZI CONSPIRACY

AMERICA FIRST

52'

Following the 1929 Great Depression, Nazi propaganda thrived in America by exploiting deep-seated anxieties over Soviet expansion. Coupling the insights of leading historians with striking archival footage of the Americans involved in this propaganda, this film illustrates how easily extremist ideology and violence took root on US soil. It is the hidden story of Nazism in America.

INTO THE VORTEX: TAMING CHAOS

TOURBILLONS : DOMPTER LE CHAOS

52' & 90'

PRESALES Q1 2027

What do wildfires, hurricanes, embryos, and galaxies share? A single, hidden force: the vortex. Far from being mere chaos, vortices are fundamental structures that shape weather patterns, drive ocean currents, guide the development of life, and sculpt the universe. Using breathtaking imagery and cutting-edge 3D animation, the film follows scientists across the globe, from field expeditions to laboratory experiments, as they uncover how these enigmatic spirals reveal nature's deepest mechanisms, and how climate change is increasingly destabilizing them.

Director: François-Xavier Vives
Production: Compagnie des Phares et Balises

ENGINEERING THE ALPS

LE DEFI DES ALPES

52' & 70'

PRESALES Q2 2027

With more than 150 resorts, a total of 55 million ski days sold through ski passes each year, and the largest interconnected ski area in the world, the French Alps stand as the result of a century of human ambition and engineering achievement. From vertiginous bridges and tunnels carved through solid rock to giant cable cars spanning entire valleys, engineers and builders have reshaped the mountains. Today, however, climate change is challenging this model. As snow retreats, resorts race to reinvent themselves. Combining archive footage, 3D reconstructions and firsthand testimonies, the film explores how the Alps were transformed by human ingenuity and how they must now adapt to a changing climate.

CADMIUM: THE SILENT THREAT (WT)

CADMIUM: UN POISON DANS NOTRE ASSIETTE ?

52' & 90'

PRESALES Q4 2027

Cadmium has been accumulating in our soils, food and bodies for decades. Its dangers have been known since the 1950s, yet contamination has continued to spread, driven in part by industry decisions and the widespread use of phosphate fertilizers.

Step into an international investigation spanning science, agriculture, public health and political influence, and discover how repeated warnings were overlooked, why regulation failed to keep pace, and what can still be done to contain a global health threat already deeply embedded in our food system..

Directors: Manon de Couët and Xavier Deleu

PFAS: THE SCIENCE OF THE INDESTRUCTIBLE

PFAS : LA SCIENCE DE L'INDESTRUCTIBLE

52'

NEW

Invisible and nearly indestructible, PFAS are everywhere: in the air we breathe, the water we drink, the soil beneath our feet and even inside our own bodies. They contaminate rainwater and pose major health risks, including cancer, hormonal disorders, neurological damage, and weakened immune systems. Embark on a global race against time: to measure the true extent of contamination, develop solutions to eliminate it, and above all, stop the pollution at its source before it is too late.

INTO THE NIGHT

VOYAGE AU COEUR DE LA NUIT

52' & 90'

Earth at night is a dazzling spectacle, illuminated by our cities, roads and industries. But in pushing back the darkness, we have forgotten how essential night is to life. Science reveals that darkness guides animals, regulates plants, shapes human biology, and helps our brains restore and consolidate memory. It may even have played a role in the origins of life. As artificial light transforms the planet after sunset, this film reveals why night still matters and what it can teach us about life on Earth.

SOCIAL ISSUES

SEND NUDES

SEND NUDES

52'

PRESALES

Q1 2027

Every day across Europe, thousands of women and girls see their intimate images shared online without their consent. Send Nudes investigates the vast and largely unpunished ecosystem behind this form of digital violence, where private images are stolen, manipulated, or obtained in abusive circumstances, then circulated through messaging apps, forums, social networks, and pornographic platforms – a phenomenon now amplified by deepfakes and generative AI.

From Prague to Lisbon, Paris to Brussels, the film follows journalists, activists, and survivors fighting back against platforms that are operating beyond borders and laws that are struggling to keep pace. Blending undercover investigation with personal stories, Send Nudes explores how Europe is confronting one of the most pervasive forms of systemic violence in the digital age.

YOUTH UNDER INFLUENCE

From social media platforms and online subcultures to the vaping industry, powerful systems are competing for attention, loyalty and influence, often targeting younger audiences. Through immersive cyber-investigations and undercover reporting, these three documentaries go behind the screen to expose how psychological distress, misogynistic ideologies and addictive products are amplified, normalised and monetised. Together, they reveal the hidden mechanisms shaping behaviours, attitudes and vulnerabilities in an increasingly connected world.

TIK TOK, DEADLY INFLUENCE: THE HIDDEN SIDE OF TIK TOK

INFLUENCE MORTELLE : LA FACE CACHÉE DE TIK TOK

NEW

52'

Never before has adolescent mental health been so widely discussed. Across social media, emotional distress spreads virally and is increasingly put on display. But what are the risks? Framed as a cyber investigation, this documentary uncovers how psychological suffering is being normalized and, at times, turned into a commodity. As lawmakers debate stronger protections for minors and restrictions on social media access for under-15s, this timely documentary examines one of today's most pressing public issues.

ICE: THE ENEMY WITHIN

ICE : LA CHASSE À L'HOMME

56' & 80'

NEW

In the United States, ICE operations have become a daily spectacle – filmed arrests, dawn raids, families separated – reflecting the political hardening driven by Donald Trump and his camp. By turning the “foreigner” into an internal enemy, immigration enforcement has become a powerful political tool. Who really is ICE? Who are the people arrested? And, ultimately, who profits from this system? This documentary explores how U.S. immigration police have increasingly become the armed wing of a political project, revealing the normalization of state violence in the United States.

DONALD TRUMP, WAR AND US

LA GUERRE, DONALD TRUMP ET NOUS

52' & 110'

As the war in Ukraine intensifies and Europe faces a historic rupture with Donald Trump's America, the continent finds itself more isolated and threatened than at any time since World War II. From Paris to Kyiv, Brussels to Washington, the film follows high-stakes negotiations and diplomatic confrontations between European allies struggling to counter Vladimir Putin's war strategy while navigating an increasingly fractured transatlantic alliance. Through exceptional interviews and rare testimonies from political leaders, military officials, NATO figures, and international experts, Guy Lagache takes viewers behind the scenes of a new geopolitical era.

JULIAN ASSANGE: THE MAN WHO MUST BE SILENCED

JULIAN ASSANGE : L'HOMME À FAIRE TAIRE

2X45' & 90'

Winner of Scam Award for Investigation at FIGRA Festival (2026)

The truth has a price. Hacker, whistleblower, journalist, spy – who really is Julian Assange? This investigative documentary offers the most comprehensive portrait to date of the WikiLeaks founder, tracing his journey from childhood to rogue hero and global pariah. Having once faced life imprisonment in the United States, Assange's unexpected release raises urgent questions about the future of whistleblowing in a world where truth itself is increasingly under attack.

INCA WATERWORKS REVEALED

SUR LES TRACES DE L'EAU DES INCAS

52'

NEW

In the steep, dizzying slopes of the Andes, local communities are feeling the full force of climate change: their water is running out. As their ancestral way of life comes under threat, a glimmer of hope rises from the past. More than 600 years ago, facing similar climatic conditions, the people of the Andes pioneered sustainable agricultural systems that allowed the Inca Empire to flourish. Together with experts and local communities, British archaeologist Kevin Lane is working to revive this forgotten knowledge and explore how ancient solutions could help Andean populations adapt to today's climate crisis.

THE WORLD IN A PAINTING

LE MONDE DANS UN TABLEAU

5X52'

What if paintings offered us a new understanding of the world? The objects represented in paintings can open doors to unsuspected, even invisible worlds. They tell a different story of the world and link cultural and geographical areas that were previously separated, showing how people have interacted for centuries on a global scale. The collection The World in a Painting traces the origin, the manufacture and the "materiality" of objects appearing in paintings, bringing to light transnational economic, cultural, social and artistic links.

NORMAN MAILER AND THE MAN WHO DEMANDED TO DIE

LE CHANT DU BOURREAU : TUE-MOI SI TU PEUX !

NEW

In July 1976, 35-year-old Gary Gilmore was found guilty of the crime of two cold-blooded murders. However, it was not the crime itself, but rather Gilmore's reaction, that transformed him into a media sensation. Refusing to appeal his death sentence, Gilmore instead demanded that the justice system carry out his sentence immediately. In January of 1977, he was shot by a firing squad. Fascinated by this anti-hero, Norman Mailer spent two years investigating Gilmore's life, meeting those who knew him and immersing himself in the places he had frequented. The result was The Executioner's Song, a monumental work of true crime and social portraiture, revealing an America marked by violence, sex, rage, and disillusionment.

GOMORRAH: AN ANTIMAFIA MANIFESTO

GOMORRA, MANIFESTE ANTIMAFIA

52'

NEW

In 2006, the publication of Gomorrah sent shock waves around the world. For the first time, a literary work was going to change the world's perception of the mafia. Yet, despite Gomorrah's success and the phenomenal response it received, twenty years on, Saviano's own admissions of powerlessness in the face of the vast Camorra machine can be striking. The film traces the genesis of a revolutionary book and the fate of a committed writer whose revelations have broken the silence surrounding organised crime, while questioning the power of literature in the face of deeply rooted mafia systems.

THE FORCE OF DESTINY

LA FORZA DEL DESTINO

52' & 90'

La Scala is more than an opera house – it is a dream factory. Over four intense months, 900 people work to bring Verdi's The Force of Destiny to life. Under the director Léo Muscato, set designer Federica Parolini's sketches become monumental sets, while Silvia Peroni and her team craft costumes by hand in La Scala's legendary workshops. As an international cast arrives in Milan and the December 7 Prima draws near, pressure and tensions rise. Will they be ready before the curtain goes up?

More than the story of an opera, this is a portrait of the many hands and talents whose artistry and devotion turn a dream into reality.

EXTRAORDINARY LIVES

THE MAN BEHIND GADGET: INSIDE THE WORLD OF JEAN CHALOPIN

INVENTEUR GADGET : LES 1000 VIES DE
JEAN CHALOPIN

3X30'

NEW

You know Inspector Gadget, but do you know Jean Chalopin, his creator? The visionary behind Inspector Gadget, Ulysses 31, and The Mysterious Cities of Gold, forever shaped the childhood of millions. A poet, entrepreneur, and larger-than-life dreamer, Chalopin lived as fantastically as the worlds he imagined. He bought a château and transformed it into his own private fantasy kingdom, set out to challenge Disney with the wildly ambitious theme park, Planète Magique, all while constantly reinventing himself, moving from one audacious venture to the next, including banking and cryptocurrency.

A wild rollercoaster ride through modern pop culture and international business, Chalopin's life is marked by global successes, ambitious failures, and visionary ideas often years ahead of their time. Now, for the first time, this documentary series tells the extraordinary story of an endlessly inventive adventurer and his multiple lives.

PRESALES

Q1 2027

This documentary series follows an international manhunt for a serial predator known as "The Wolfman," taking us from a small village in Brittany to Miami and across Europe. It all begins with the murder of 13-year-old Caroline Dickinson. The case quickly grows into a major international investigation, driven by new DNA technology and close cooperation between police forces through Interpol, finally leading to the identification of Francisco Arce Montes.

With powerful testimonies from survivor Kate and, for the first time in over 20 years, Caroline's father John Dickinson, The Wolfman is a gripping story about the search for justice.

SALTA: THE CODE OF SILENCE

SALTA : LA LOI DU SILENCE

4X40'

NEW

In July 2011, the bodies of two young French women, Cassandre Bouvier and Houria Mouni, were found near Salta, Argentina. Three men from impoverished neighborhoods were quickly identified as suspects, and one of them, Clemente Vera, was ultimately convicted. But the investigation was marred by ignored leads, silenced witnesses, and unanswered questions.

Convinced that the real killers remain free, Cassandre's father, Jean-Michel Bouvier, has spent fourteen years fighting to prove Vera's innocence and expose those he believes were protected by the local justice system. In 2025, the case was reopened. Will the truth finally come to light?

THE REAL X FILES

10X45'

PRESENTED WITH PROPAGATE

Deep beneath London's National Archives lie thousands of little-known government files, once classified as top secret and now slowly being released to the public. They reveal the extraordinary extent to which the military, intelligence agencies, and police have investigated the paranormal. After hundreds of hours examining these records, investigative journalist Tim Tate uncovers how authorities on both sides of the Atlantic pursued everything from sea monsters and cryptids to psychic powers and ghost ships. These real-life X-Files open a hidden chapter of government history and raise a tantalizing question: what did the authorities really discover?

AN ALMOST PERFECT MURDER

PRESENTED WITH PROPAGATE

The most chilling murders are often the hardest to detect: staged as accidents, suicides, or the work of a mysterious killer, they can leave police with no trace to follow. These highly premeditated crimes were designed to conceal the truth. Sometimes the killer gets away with it for years and sometimes an innocent person takes the blame. However, they never count on the detectives and forensic scientists who are determined to get to the bottom of the crime. This fascinating new series explores ten cases where killers thought they had covered their tracks, only for expert detective work to piece together the clues and bring them to justice.
